HOW TO DRESS:*FESTIVAL FASHION

Welcome to our regular feature. This week we are looking at what people wear to music festivals.

Jo: Hi! I'm Jo Mack and I work as a fashion editor for Hip magazine. I think I must have the best job in the world because today I'm working at the Coachella music festival in California. The question I'm asking is 'What is the "Festival Look" this year?'. Ten thousand people are listening to music here and I believe the temperature is 32°. I know Radiohead are on later and I really want to watch them, but right now I'm speaking to people about what they're wearing and why.

3 Read the GRAMMAR FOCUS and look at the verbs in blue in Exercise 2. Which verbs describe an action and which describe a state?

GRAMMAR FOCUS*Dynamic and state verbs

• Most verbs have dynamic meanings. They describe actions: something 'happens'. You can use them with simple or continuous forms.

*I work as a fashion editor for Hip magazine.*

Today I'm working at the Coachella music festival.

• Some verbs have stative meanings. They describe states: nothing 'happens'. You cannot use them with continuous forms.

*I believe the temperature is 32°. (NOT I'm believing)*

Note:

A few verbs (e.g. think, have, look) have both dynamic and stative meanings. The meanings are different:

I think I must have the best job in the world.

(think = believe → stative)

I'm thinking about going to see them.

(think = consider → dynamic)

4 1.6 Read and listen to Jo's interview with Anna.

Decide which of the underlined verb phrases are state verbs and which are dynamic verbs.

Jo: Oh, that's a shame.

Anna: No, it's OK. My brother hates festivals.

He prefers listening to music at home.

I really want to see Kings of Leon – I listen to their music all the time!

5 1.7 Complete Jo's interview with Tom with the correct Present Simple or Present Continuous form of the verbs in brackets. Then listen and check.

Hi Sam,
Lucky you! Take at least two <sup>1</sup> _____ shirts or T-shirts and suntan lotion for your arms. You need a pair of <sup>2</sup> _____ shorts – cycling damages shorts quickly, so invest in good ones. Lots of people wear black ones but I prefer <sup>3</sup> _____ shorts and T-shirts so that car drivers can see you! A warm jacket – something that will keep you warm in the evening. A rain jacket that's made from <sup>4</sup> _____ fabric. There's some amazing <sup>5</sup> _____ technology out there in new fabrics for sports clothes. Oh, and don't forget your sunglasses! Have fun.

We think we look so cool, so modern and just a little rebellious in our jeans, white T-shirt and black leather jacket. But we're not as original as we think we are – this look goes back to the 1970s, right? Well, no, not exactly – as a matter of fact, you can trace most of it back to 100 years ago.

- 5 Take the white T-shirt and leather jacket. Both started life in the military. The T-shirt (so-called because of its shape like a T) was in fact underwear. In the American Navy, it was worn under a uniform. Until the early 20th century, underwear was woollen, but a revolution in textile production produced cotton jersey, a fast-drying fabric which fits tightly to the body and kept sailors warm.
- 10 The short-sleeved T-shirt was born. Leather jackets were worn by fighter pilots in the First World War – they were hard-wearing, warm and fur-lined for maximum protection from the elements. Then, in 1928, an American raincoat company, Schott, designed the first leather motorcycle jacket with a zip.

- By the 1950s both garments had reached iconic status when famous actors like Marlon Brando and James Dean wore them in films. Later, in the 1960s and 1970s, bands from the Beatles to the Ramones adopted the leather jacket, and it moved from motorcycle sports to teenage rebellion. In the 1970s T-shirts got a colourful update: brightly-coloured T-shirts were particularly popular as well as T-shirts with band logos and political slogans. Having started out as an undergarment for men, T-shirts became unisex in the 1970s and have been part of everyone's wardrobe since then.

- You may think your fashionably distressed jeans are cutting-edge fashion items, but they can be traced even further back in history. In the 1800s denim, the material jeans are made of, was a kind of cotton made in Nîmes, France ('de Nîmes'). The first blue denim trousers were worn by sailors in Genoa – 'Gênes' in French. 'Bleu de Gênes' became 'blue jeans'.
- 25

Marlon Brando

The Ramones

- Blue jeans as we know them originated during the 1849 Californian Gold Rush. They were developed by German storekeeper Levi Strauss and Latvian tailor Jacob Davis. Levi Strauss never wore a pair of jeans himself – he was a wealthy businessman, and jeans were only worn by manual workers and cowboys. But then their popularity spread after the Second World War. Young people started wearing jeans to imitate young Hollywood stars. However, they were associated with rebellious behaviour and were banned in schools.
- 30

- So each time you wear your jeans, white T-shirt and black leather jacket, you're actually wearing 100 years of style history! The secret to their long life? They're comfortable, multi-purpose clothes made of natural materials that are easy to wear, keep you warm and give you a little attitude.

GRAMMAR

Present Perfect Continuous

I can use the Present Perfect Continuous and Present Perfect Simple.

1 SPEAKING Look at the different versions of the Mona Lisa and discuss the questions.

- Which version do you like best? Why?
- What do you know about the original painting?

2 Read about the real Mona Lisa. Why does the curator think the Mona Lisa is smiling?

STOP ASKING SILLY QUESTIONS

My name is Henri Dubois. I've been working at the Louvre Museum in Paris for twenty-one years and I've been looking after the Mona Lisa for nearly ten. So, for the past ten years I've been watching people's faces when they first see the Mona Lisa. There's something very special about that painting. I've also been answering the same questions over and over again. They ask me, 'How long has she been hanging in the Louvre?' I always say the Mona Lisa has been in the Louvre since 1804. But it isn't quite true. The Mona Lisa hasn't been hanging in the Louvre since then because someone stole it in 1911. Fortunately the painting was returned two years later.

The other questions are impossible to answer. They ask me: 'Who was she? Why is she smiling?' Why? Because she's been listening to people's silly questions for over two hundred years! Stop asking questions and look at the painting – it's beautiful!

3 Read the GRAMMAR FOCUS. Then underline six more examples of the Present Perfect Continuous in the text.

GRAMMAR FOCUS

Present Perfect Continuous

You use the Present Perfect Continuous to talk about unfinished actions that started in the past and continue in time 'up-to-now'. Use for or since to say how long.

I've been working here for twenty-one years.

Present Perfect Continuous: has/have + been + -ing form

+ I've been working.

- He hasn't been working.

? Have you been working?

Yes, I have./No, I haven't.

Note: State verbs (be, have, know, etc.) do not take the continuous form.

The Mona Lisa has been in the Louvre since 1804. (NOT has-been-being ...)

4 Complete the dialogue between the Manager (M), a guest (G) and the guest's son Jack (J). Use the Present Perfect Continuous.

M: I'm sorry, the museum is really busy today. How long <sup>1</sup> _____ (wait)?

G: It's OK. We <sup>2</sup> _____ (not wait) long. We <sup>3</sup> _____ (stand) in this queue for about twenty minutes.

M: Right. Well, I'll introduce you to Henri, our curator. He <sup>4</sup> _____ (work) here for over twenty years.

G: Thanks. My son, Jack, is very excited. He <sup>5</sup> _____ (learn) about Leonardo da Vinci at school.

M: Well, I'm sure Henri can answer any questions. He <sup>6</sup> _____ (look after) the Mona Lisa for ten years.

J: Er ... How long <sup>7</sup> _____ (the Mona Lisa/hang) in the Louvre?

5 Complete the sentences with the Present Perfect Simple or Continuous form of the verbs in brackets. Then add a time expression to make them true for you.

- I 've had (have) the same computer for 3 years.
- I _____ (study) English since _____.
- I _____ (listen) to the same music since _____.
- I _____ (go) to the same hairdresser's for _____.
- I _____ (know) my oldest friend since _____.
- I _____ (sit) in this chair since _____.

6 SPEAKING Write questions for the sentences in Exercise 5 beginning with How long have you ...? Then ask your partner.

How long have you had the same computer?

REMEMBER THIS

You use the Present Perfect Simple to talk about finished actions in time 'up-to-now'. You can say 'how many' but not 'when'.

Piotr has visited the Louvre seven times. He has visited twenty-seven other museums.

7 Choose the most appropriate Present Perfect form. Which sentences are true for you?

- I've seen / I've been seeing the Mona Lisa twice.
- My mum has bought / has been buying a new car.
- It's snowed / It's been snowing since yesterday.
- I've learnt / I've been learning the piano for years.
- We have never been going / have never been abroad.
- I haven't eaten / haven't been eating lunch yet.

8 SPEAKING Write questions in the Present Perfect Simple or Continuous. Begin the questions with How long ...? or How many ...? Ask your partner.

- messages / receive / today?
- wear / the same watch?
- have / the same bag?
- foreign countries / visit?
- books / read / in the past three months?

Hi Dominic,

Zara told me you are looking for a new singer for your band. Is that right? If so, I think my friend might be perfect.

Her name's Claire. The first thing you notice about her is that she

- looks a little older than she is. She's our age, but she looks like she's already in her early twenties. She's very easy-going and I think she has a great sense of humour – we get on really well. She's also a very creative person and a fantastic singer. She plays the piano and writes her own songs and has even made a video to
- go with one of them. She's into all sorts of music, from classical to rap and I think she's the kind of person who is open to new ideas. I think she'd make a great singer for the band.

She's also very pretty ;-). She's about medium height and slim, and she's got long, straight, dark hair. She dresses fashionably, though

- usually in black. I think she looks kind of punky but in a good way.

On the negative side, she isn't exactly punctual and she can be a little moody at times. She tends to get upset if you criticise her. But hey, she's a creative!

Watch her video (attached) and let me know what you think.

On the floor, <sup>6</sup> _____ to her chair, there are several shopping bags. I'm not <sup>7</sup> _____ what's in them, but I think they're probably clothes, and I <sup>8</sup> _____ they've been shopping for a few hours already. It's hard to <sup>9</sup> _____ out exactly what kind of shop they are in, but it <sup>10</sup> _____ to be a men's clothes shop. Fashion and the Human Form

In every period throughout history there have been specific ideas of what the perfect human body should look like. Different body types have gone <sup>1</sup> _____ and out of fashion just like clothes and hairstyles, and these ideals led to the <sup>2</sup> _____ of fashions. The ancient Greeks, who admired slim, athletic bodies, went for a casual look, with soft <sup>3</sup> _____ and comfortable shapes. In Britain, the Elizabethans preferred women's clothes which forced their bodies into totally unnatural shapes, causing a lot of discomfort. During the early 19th century, Europeans believed that the Greek look was the best, and women's clothes became much more comfortable, but this did not last. The Victorians thought that a very small waist made women attractive, and women wore such tight garments they sometimes caused actual injuries. Nowadays, some of the most <sup>4</sup> _____ designers make clothes that fit all shapes and sizes. But judging by all the diet plans, exercise programmes and plastic surgery procedures that are available, it seems that things <sup>5</sup> _____ much up to now.

Stella McCartney

When designer Stella McCartney arrived on the fashion scene, many people claimed her success was due to her famous name. Her father is, after all, Beatles legend Paul McCartney. This, however, is not true. For Stella, her achievements took hard work, determination and, of course, talent.

In 1995, after graduating from Central St Martins College of Art and Design in London, she enjoyed almost immediate success. Two short years later, at the age of twenty-six, she became the head designer at Chloé – a famous Parisian fashion house. After four highly successful years at Chloé, Stella launched her own fashion label and showed her first collection of cutting-edge designs in 2001.

Since then her company has been growing steadily. In that time, it has gained acceptance as a fashion company with a difference. When Stella was growing up on a farm, her parents taught her to respect animals, to be aware of nature, and to understand that human beings must get along well with other creatures. This down-to-earth approach has had a huge impact on her and, as a result, she believes in ethical fashion now. Ethical fashion covers issues such as working conditions, child labour, fair trade and responsible production that does not harm the environment.

As a lifelong vegetarian, Stella does not use any natural leather or fur in her designs. The fabric she prefers is organic cotton and she has been experimenting with eco-friendly materials and production processes. She always tries to find the most responsible production methods. Recently, Stella decided not to work with a fabrics factory because the process it used to colour the fabrics was very harmful to the environment. An entire river near the factory became red, making the water unsuitable for drinking or for use in agriculture.

Stella's ethical fashion also aims to help poor workers. For this reason, she has created a range of cloth bags together with the United Nations' International Trade Centre. The programme provides work for poor communities in Kenya, where the bags are created by hand. So far, 160 people in disadvantaged areas have been involved in the production. They are earning money, which has improved their lives.

Stella McCartney has an interesting philosophy. She believes designers should ask themselves how they make their clothes and accessories, where they make them, and what materials they use. Thinking about these questions makes designing more challenging and more interesting, but still allows designers to create luxurious, beautiful items that people want to buy. Stella McCartney is proof of that.

- Stella McCartney worked at Chloé as the _____.
- She _____ her own fashion company in 2001.
- Stella cares about _____ issues in fashion, e.g. child labour or fair trade.
- Her favourite material is _____.
- She did not want to cooperate with a _____ which did not use eco-friendly production methods.
- People from _____ in Kenya are involved in making cloth bags for Stella.

SPEAKING

8 Look at the photos. They show people discussing what clothes to wear. In pairs, take turns to compare the photos and say why the people might have different opinions about the clothes.

9 Ask and answer the questions.

- What do you think the woman in photo A is telling the girl? What are the couple discussing in the second photo?
- Do your parents ever comment on your clothes? Why?/Why not?
- Do you find it easy to choose what clothes to wear? Do you often ask for advice when you go shopping?

10 Can you wear informal clothes everywhere? Discuss.
